through worship we move learn encounter and celebrate in god s time in this concise introduction dr knowles wallace gives practical worship and preaching suggestions for each season of the christian year as it relates to the revised common lectionary

the distinct subjects of eschatology and gender equality have seen an explosion of interest in recent decades particularly within pentecostal scholarship pentecostalism is regarded ideally as both an eschatological and egalitarian movement however many pentecostals have lamented the inconsistency between the early egalitarian impulse of the movement and its current restrictive practices this situation has been described as the so called pentecostal gender paradox referring to the conflicting freedoms and limitations experienced by pentecostal women pentecostals have also recognized the waning eschatological fervor within the movement and its shifting eschatological convictions leading to calls to rediscover the eschatological heart of the movement despite the renewed interest in both eschatology and women s equality little research has been done to put these two areas into conversation with each other eschatological convictions are often absent in the debate on gender roles in the church for pentecostals eschatology has often been about urgency in saving souls rather than attending to social issues but could pentecostal eschatology be the key to re discovering greater equality for women in the church is the waning of both eschatology and women s equality within pentecostalism potentially interrelated for over one hundred years the role of women in pentecostalism has been debated without a firm consensus by examining gender solely through an eschatological lens in history scripture and praxis this work provides a valuable and creative contribution to one of the most important theological and global issues of our time women s in equality this book is also one of the first comprehensive studies to approach a single social issue solely through an eschatological lens and to provide attention to developing a thorough and methodologically connected eschatological praxis by uncovering the unified eschatological egalitarian narrative thread within both the pentecostal and biblical story this work suggests that the present end of women's inequality begins with fidelity to the future eschaton of gender equality this fifth missional church series volume seeks to bring historical clarity biblical and theological substance and practical guidance to church planting the nine contributors many of them experienced church planting pastors offer diverse yet cohesive perspectives on the spirit's missional church planting in our time section one presents three essays which address missional church planting as a theological practice with particular attention given to the activity of the holy spirit within the context of god's trinitarian life section two grounds church planting initiatives in the generative soil of story the two essays in this section narrate how specific congregations provide glimpses of the holy spirit in action supplying the reader with hints for how history might lead to future expectations of the holy spirit's ongoing church planting activity three essays in section three focus on new frontiers appearing on the church planting horizon and an epilogue provides a sermon which orients church planting efforts in witness that flows from the heart of god in this book readers will find fresh insights into an exciting new future created and led by the spirit contributors daniel anderson leith anderson paul chung mary sue dehm low dreier todd hobart harvey kwiyani lois malcolm susan tjornehoj miroslav volf the abingdon theological companion to the lectionary begins with the conviction that scripture speaks first and foremost to christians now its message engages christian belief and action in the present day while informed by the best in current biblical studies its commentary on the scripture passages of the revised common lectionary focuses on the questions of christian life in the world that church members bring to worship each entry is co-written by a theologian and homiletician and seeks to answer the questions what does this passage say about the gospel and how does it speak to my encounter with god in christ and my calling as a christian in the world this volume showcases theological matters that arise from the biblical texts in the lectionary and from the church seasons and special days this important resource draws upon recent scholarship in various disciplines with a view to enriching the theological contribution of sermons in the years to come
