popular politics in the history of south africa 1400 1948 offers an inclusive vision of south africa s past drawing largely from original sources paul landau presents a history of the politics of the country s people from the time of their early settlements in the elevated heartlands through the colonial era to the dawn of apartheid a practical tradition of mobilization alliance and amalgamation persisted mutated and occasionally vanished from view it survived against the odds in several forms in tribalisms christian assemblies and other seemingly hybrid movements and it continues today landau treats southern africa broadly concentrating increasingly on the southern highveld and ultimately focusing on a transnational movement called the samuelites he shows how people s politics in south africa were suppressed and transformed but never entirely eliminated in african theology as liberating wisdom celebrating life and harmony in the evangelical lutheran church in botswana mari anna pöntinen analyses contextual interpretations of the christian faith in this particular church these interpretations are based on the special wisdom tradition which embraces monistic ontology communal ethics in botho and the indigenous belief in god as the source of life and the root of everything that exists the constructing theological principle in the elcb is the downward orientated and descending god in christ which interprets the lutheran spirit in a liberating and empowering sense it deals with the cultural mythos which brings christ down into people s existence unlike western connotations which are considered to hinder seeing christ and to prevent existential self awareness
