raised as a devout muslim but holding a ph d in christian education gabriel uses his unique background to share real life stories of christians living in muslim countries lists the top ten terrorists explains the value of religious education for muslim children and discusses why the history of islam has been a bloodbath

i ve been to hell and back i ve dragged hell to it s deepest darkest nightmares to the point of it saying your not welcome here i don t want you to pick this book up for the sake of it i want you to pick it up and take it home with you only if you will pay attention i didn t bring up all of my traumas and nightmares for nothing i have done so only to help people who have been and who currently are in the places and situations i ve horribly found myself in welcome to my world of autism welcome to my struggles with adhd attention deficit hyperactivity disorder see how bipolar affects me look into the effects depression and anxiety have on the human mind all of this might well seem like a lot but really it s not but above all remember this was done to try and let people know that life is in fact a bitch of a struggle not only that but to make people aware that you can get through life s struggles in the very world we live in

why are humans obsessed with divine minds what do gods know and what do they care about what happens to us and our relationships when gods are involved drawing from neuroscience evolutionary cultural and applied anthropology social psychology religious studies philosophy technology and cognitive and political sciences the minds of gods probes these questions from a multitude of naturalistic perspectives each chapter offers brief intellectual histories of their topics summarizes current cutting edge questions in the field and points to areas in need of attention from future researchers through an innovative theoretical framework that combines evolutionary and cognitive approaches to religion this book brings together otherwise disparate literatures to focus on a topic that has comprised a lasting central obsession of our species this book explores the philosophical and religious dimensions of korean neo confuciansim as expounded by one of the foremost korean neo confucian thinkers yi yulgok 1536 1584 yulgok s creative interpretations reformulate some fundamental issues of confucian philosophy this book explores the significance of the fundamental assumption which underlies the entire system of yulgok s confucian thought that philosophical assumption is characterized by the author as non dualistic and anthropocosmic it is a unique aspect of korean neo confucianism which leads to a new way of understanding the confucian world view and spirituality this non dualistic vision sheds a new and critical light on the dialectical framework of thinking at work in western formulations of understanding the ultimate reality nature the universe and human being the anthropocosmic vision in this respect will challenge fundamental assumptions of western theological formulation and suggest a new understanding of human nature and the universe a non dualistic and anthropocosmic interpretation of yulgok s thought is a fruitful way of approaching the korean way of thinking and of coming to grips with one neo confucian mode of attaining human self understanding
