the exciting pieces in these collections are designed to entertain reinforce and enhance the important music and technical skills being studied during the early levels students will develop their own magical imaginations with the repertoire contained in this series

a valuable assortment of teacher student duets in their original form written by teachers and composers during the 18th and 19th centuries arranged in order of difficulty the student parts are limited to a single five finger position and fall primarily within the grand staff reading range each book includes works by such composers as diabelli gurlitt bercucci wohlfahrt berens and others two wonderful collections of the best and most favorite piano sheet music solos by dennis alexander book 1 is for elementary to late elementary pianists while book 2 contains solos at the early intermediate to intermediate level this collection of preludes in all major and minor keys contains a wealth of pedagogical challenges for the late intermediate to early advanced level student each prelude is designed to explore one or more pianistic problems and serves as excellent preparatory repertoire for the more complex character pieces of the great masters of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries the sounds of bach mendelssohn schumann rachmaninoff debussy ravel gershwin prokofieff and copland are echoed in the pieces in this collection dennis alexander has recorded beautiful solo renditions of all 24 pieces on a correlated compact disc which is packaged with each book in a convenient vinyl slip pocket the recordings are ideal for students to listen to at home for performance modeling and for quick teaching reference as you assign selections for years piano teachers remarked that dennis alexander s pieces were great for boys and suggested that he write a book of pieces with boys in mind drawing on his own teaching experiences and recalling the kinds of pieces he would have liked to play at a similar age he composed these engaging late elementary piano solos that incorporate strong rhythms athletic leaps of the hands and big sounds a gratifying collection for students who need a little extra motivation to practice these three unique volumes contain 47 duets in their original form written by composers who lived in the 18th 19th and 20th centuries the primo and secondo parts are written on facing pages and are of equal difficulty allowing students of equal ability to perform together these duets can be used as supplementary material for any course of study
