in his most important work max horkheimer surveys and demonstrates the gradual ascendancy of reason in western philosophy its eventual total application to all spheres of life and what he considers its present reified domination first published in 1947 horkheimer here explores the ways in nazism that most irrational of political movements had co opted ideas of rationality for its own ends ultimately the book is a warning of the ways this might happen again and as such this is a book that has never appeared more timely grazia deledda has been variously categorised as romantic realist symbolist or decadent this book aims to show the writer and her work in a fresh light emphasising the extraordinary nature of her achievement given her unpromising beginnings it offers insight into her work from the perspectives of modernism feminism and post colonialism this book examines the processes involved in writing the lives of women both as autobiographies and as biographies some essays are theoretical discussions about the constructions of self articulation in women s life writing others are more autobiographical emphasizing the importance of self articulation for creating possibilities for self direction adopting different theoretical approaches chapters in this collection highlight the connections between subjectivity and history feminist concerns about mothering and the mother daughter relationships autobiography discourse and its framing of the relationship between text and life and the ethics of constructing biographies the book is divided into three parts the first part focuses on the process of writing lives as expressed but also contested in epistolary narratives autobiography and historical fiction the second part considers notions of female genealogy and the relationship with the maternal both biological and symbolic the third part comprises articles which deal with writing outside geographical and metaphorical borders the fifth volume of the collected letters of margaret fuller traces a period of great emotional turbulence reflecting the personal struggles she faced in motherhood and the external strife of revolutionary europe in 1848 the book opens as she takes up residence in rome where she continued to write essays for the new york daily tribune and kept up a steady flow of commentary on the political situation for her family and friends among fuller s correspondents are ralph waldo emerson giovanni ossoli william wetmore story giuseppe mazzini horace greeley george william curtis and elizabeth barrett browning many of the letters were written in italian and are translated here for the first time since fuller was more centrally involved in the italian risorgimento than any other american they constitute an entirely new documentary source for historians of nineteenth century italy
