running with the fairies towards a transpersonal anthropology of religion is a unique account of the living spirituality and mysticism of fairyfolk in Ireland. Fairyfolk are fairyminded people who have had direct experiences with the divine energy and appearance of fairies and fairypeople who additionally know that they have been reincarnated from the fairy realm while fairies have been folklore superstition or fantasy for most children and adults. Now for the first time in a scholarly work, highly educated persons speak frankly about their religious spiritual experiences, journeys and transformations in connection with these angel-like spirit beings. Set in academic and popular historical perspectives, this first scholarly account of the fairy faith for over a hundred years since Believer Evans Wentz's 1911 published doctoral dissertation, The Fairy Faith in Celtic Countries, integrates a participatory going native anthropology with transpersonal psychology, providing extensive verbatim interviews and discussions. This path-breaking work recognizes the reality of nature spirit beings in a Western context through intensive on-site fieldwork. The PhD cultural anthropologist author discovers, describes and interviews authentic mystics aligned with these intermediary deific beings. With an extensive introduction placing fairies in the context of the anthropology of religion, animism, mysticism and consciousness, this daring ethnography considers notions of belief, perception and spiritual experience and with intricate detail extends the focus of anthropological research on spirit beings which previously have been considered as locally real only in indigenous and Eastern cultures.

This book, originally published in 1892, is a beautifully written collection of Celtic fairy tales bound to enrapture. Filled to the brim with, as Joseph Jacob says, both the best and the best known folk tales of the Celts, this is the first of his two collections of Celtic folklore included in this charming collection. Are tales of romance, tales that will make you laugh and tales with sadness intertwined? The twenty-six story medley includes Guleesh Conal, Yellowclaw the Shepherd of Myddvau, the story of Deirdre, the wooing of Olwen, the Sea Maiden Jack and his Master Beth Gellert, the Battle of the Birds, the Lad with the Goat Skin and many more. The magic of these stories is brought to life with fantastical sketches by John D. Batten that are interspersed throughout the pages, including eight full-page illustrations. The wonder, witchcraft and magic found in Celtic tales are sure to enrapture all readers young and old alike.
