thomas lives in both the world of his mind and the reality of his troubled family's home in postwar amsterdam whether imagined angels support him or his father beats him he records it all in his book of everything but when thomas begins to form surprising connections with the people around him suddenly it seems that maybe the two worlds don't have to be so far apart maybe the miraculous really looks like a letter from the witch next door a sister who takes a stand at the dinner table or a tropical fish in the canal maybe things can change witty wise and bursting with magical realism this stage adaptation brings the acclaimed book to life with an ensemble cast a full length version of this play is also available while most scholars who study children's books are preoccupied with the child characters and adult mediators vanessa joosen repositions the lens to focus on the underexplored construction of adulthood in children's literature adulthood in children's literature demonstrates how books for young readers evoke adulthood as a stage in life enacted by adult characters and in relationship with the construction of childhood employing age studies as a framework for analysis this book covers a range of english and dutch children's books published from 1970 to the present calling upon critical voices like elizabeth young bruehl margaret morganroth gullette peter hollindale maria nikolajeva and lorraine green and the works of such authors as babette cole philip pullman ted van lieshout jacqueline wilson salman rushdie and guus kuijer joosen offers a fresh perspective on children's literature by focusing not on the child but the adult
