delve into the profound world of biblical prophecy with willis judson beecher's illuminating work The Prophets and the Promise. This scholarly yet accessible book provides a comprehensive exploration of the prophetic tradition within the Bible, examining the lives and messages of the prophets and their enduring significance in the Judeo-Christian tradition. Willis Judson Beecher, a distinguished theologian and biblical scholar, meticulously analyzes the role of the prophets in ancient Israel, offering deep insights into their divine mission and the promises they proclaimed through thoughtful exegesis and historical context. Beecher brings to life the powerful messages of these revered figures from Isaiah and Jeremiah to Ezekiel and Daniel. The Prophets and the Promise explores the nature of prophecy, highlighting how the prophets served as intermediaries between God and His people, delivering messages of warning, hope, and redemption. Beecher delves into the themes of covenant, justice, and divine promise, showing how the prophetic messages were not only relevant in their own time but continue to resonate through the ages. Central to Beecher's analysis is the concept of the promise: the assurance of God's faithfulness and the anticipation of future fulfillment. He examines how this promise unfolds through the prophetic writings, culminating in the messianic hope that finds its ultimate expression in the New Testament. Beecher's work underscores the continuity and coherence of the biblical narrative, connecting the Old Testament prophecies with their New Testament fulfillment. The Prophets and the Promise is a valuable resource for anyone looking to deepen their understanding of the Bible's prophetic literature.

In Ephesians 4:11, the apostle Paul tells us that Jesus gave apostles, prophets, evangelists, pastors, and teachers to the church. He did this in the days of the New Testament. The question is: does Jesus still give all of them to the church today? This book seeks to address this question. In this book, you will find the ministries of apostles, prophets, evangelists, pastors, and teachers; defined names of people in the Bible who held these ministries; descriptions of each ministry from a biblical/historical perspective; an examination of the contemporary expressions of the ministries of evangelists, pastors, and teachers; answers to objections about the presence of apostles and prophets in the church today; a case for the continuance of the ministries of apostles and prophets in the modern church; a description of the ministries of apostles and prophets in the contemporary church. John P. Lathrop is a graduate of Zion Bible College and Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary. He is an ordained minister with the International Fellowship of Christian Assemblies and is currently active in pastoral ministry at the Christian Pentecostal Church in Newton, MA. In addition to pastoring, he regularly writes for Vista magazine, the official publication of the International Fellowship of Christian Assemblies, and for Pneuma Review, a publication of the Pneuma Foundation. He has ministered overseas in the countries of Indonesia and Zimbabwe. He and his wife, Cynthia, are the parents of five adult children: Carrie, Joshua, Deborah, Stephen, and Daniel. The Lathrops also have two grandchildren.
