from the new york times bestselling author of the chemical garden trilogy on the floating city of internment you can be anything you dream unless you approach the edge children s literature says shades of aldous huxley s brave new world and george orwell s 1984 inspire destefano s sci fi murder mystery page turner morgan stockhour knows getting too close to the edge of internment the floating city and her home can lead to madness even though her older brother lex was a jumper morgan vows never to end up like him there s too much for her on internment her parents best friend pen and her betrothed basil her life is ordinary and safe even if she sometimes does wonder about the ground and why it s forbidden then a murder the first in a generation rocks the city with whispers swirling and fear on the wind morgan can no longer stop herself from investigating especially once she meets judas betrothed to the victim judas is being blamed for the murder but morgan is convinced of his innocence secrets lay at the heart of internment but nothing can prepare morgan for what she will find or whom she will lose

after morgan stockhour and her friends escape internment she discovers that life on the ground is not safer and that perhaps going over the edge has led her to madness

with their floating city utopia threatened by the war on the ground and the greed of two kings morgan and the others from internment must find a way to save the city from falling out of the sky or being obliterated altogether floating islands in science history the arts and any number of sightings elsewhere rise back up to the floating city of internment in this original novella a dark look at life in the royal family after the events of perfect ruin when king furlow begins to treat prince azure as the heir apparent that he is he takes him to see the re education camps for wrong thinkers but as he enters the camps azure discovers the dark underbelly of the kingdom and the king himself his view of his father can never be the same but what about his view of himself the american flag stands for hatred warmongering and imperialism our free market system is responsible for killing and oppressing millions of people this country breeds racists and sexists is america really that bad it is if you accept the lies and propaganda from the anti american left in our own country this dismal distorted view of the greatest freest nation in history comes from a left who would rather idolize ho chi minh and fidel castro than honor george washington and thomas jefferson who burn down businesses and destroy property to protest free markets and who fight alongside radical terrorists rather than against them they trample the constitution while hiding behind the first amendment and their idea of displaying the american flag is setting it on fire and parading it through the streets yes this is a left comprised of people who truly hate their country and they will stop at nothing to tear her down smashing our liberty in the process why the left hates america punches a hole right through the thin veneer of political correctness that has long protected these anti americans exposing their rotting vacuous core author and commentator daniel j flynn digs deep into the american left and reveals why they blame every bad deed in the world on the united states while ignoring her myriad contributions this book cogently points out that of course all americans have the right to speak their minds but all too often the actions by the anti american left become destructive and anarchistic you need not look any further than the explosive 1999 world trade organization protests in seattle campus book burnings or even john walker lindh to see that factions on the left are the worst perpetrators of anti americanism and what may be most shocking is that many of these anti americans are at the same time teachers professors journalists news reporters and even judges and politicians probing and controversial without devolving into jingoism this book proves once and for all that what you see in the news and learn in school is often tainted by the anti american left and it shows you what you can do to keep them at bay during world war ii the us government confined thousands of japanese german and italian americans to isolated fenced and guarded relocation centers known as internment camps at the same time it shipped foreign prisoners of war captured overseas to the us for imprisonment heartland reflects on the intersection between these two historic events through the story of a german born widow and her family who take in two german prisoners of war to work their family farm but the german american family and the pows bond too well for the townspeople to accept and the widow is arrested interned and eventually suffers a breakdown which tears her family apart based on true stories heartland illustrates what can happen when fear and prejudice pit neighbor against neighbor in times of war a dramatic tale that grants insights into american history heartland is a winner of the dayton playhouse futurefest and a runner up for the kennedy center american college theatre festival david mark cohen national playwriting award the story is shocking for me it was revelatory wrote theatre critic pat launer deporting our own citizens who knew but the play while conveying historical information is not in the slightest didactic it s a family story a tale of survival and acquiescence of racism of neighbor against neighbor not a pretty picture while it may be read for pleasure heartland also is a useful tool for exposing students to important lessons in history politics economics sociology psychology women s studies and other academic disciplines social fictions series editorial advisory board carl bagley university of durham uk anna banks university of idaho usa carolyn ellis university of south florida usa rita irwin university of british columbia canada j gary knowles university of toronto canada laurel richardson the ohio state university emeritus usa lojo simon is a playwright dramaturg and journalist her play adoration of dora about surrealist photographer dora maar won the david mark cohen national playwriting award given by the kennedy center american college theatre festival and the association for theatre in higher education she holds an mfa in theatre from university of idaho anita yellin simons is a political activist and playwright who combines both her love of history and activism in her many award winning plays from her first play goodbye memories about anne frank before going into hiding to a later play this we ll defend about female rape in the military simons presents thought provoking theater with humor and pathos
