in the lexicon of garden and landscape architecture professor meto j vroom gets to the heart of over 250 key landscape concepts through definition illustration and reference to the essential literature he delineates and expands the theoretical framework of his discipline thereby opening a fascinating gateway towards understanding change in our urban and rural landscapes this work will prove an indispensable point of reference for all those involved in landscape architecture practitioners and amateurs alike jacket

this book highlights the principal themes and elements in the making of the landscape and the sources which can assist historians and historical geographers in studying and understanding irish landscape history major and local sources relating to the natural environment cultural landscapes and the built environment are explored the book also looks at representations of landscapes in literature painting and other artistic sources which can provide insights into the nature of real and imagined worlds of the past the ultimate source which features prominently throughout this study is the landscape itself on which generations before us have inscribed the marks of their presence in fields farms houses villages towns roads lanes and the infrastructure of settlement book jacket english country lanes is a lyrical celebration of the beauties of the lanes of the english countryside gareth lovett jones who has travelled through and photographed the lanes for over twenty years has produced in a perfect unity of text and pictures the most comprehensive book on the lanes yet published the emphasis throughout is on exploring by bicycle pootling in the words of the author and the book rejects the stance of conventional guide books which lead the reader passively by the hand and replaces it with an exhortation to pioneering independence by giving details of ten networks ranging from yorkshire to somerset he demonstrates how we can all discover the delights of the lanes for ourselves the book also takes a long hard look at the destruction going on unnoticed every day in the countryside and calls for measures to stop this and to begin restoring something of what has been lost a combination of celebration and elegy english country lanes is a visual feast as well as thought provoking and exhilarating the notion of landscape is a complex one but it has been central to the art and artistry of the cinema after all what is the french new wave without paris what are the films of sidney lumet woody allen martin scorsese and spike lee without new york cinema and landscape frames contemporary film landscapes across the world in an exploration of screen aesthetics and national ideology film form and cultural geography cinematic representation and the human environment written by well known cinema scholars this volume both extends the existing field of film studies and stakes claims to overlapping contested territories in the humanities and social sciences the author intends to ensure that the practice potentialities and limitations of aerial archaeological photography are more widely and fully understood the primary emphasis of the book is on mediterranean countries which offer a wide scope for aerial discovery the title of this book autofocus retina means a configuration of four diamond shaped mirrors connoting the inner mechanics of a camera lens the photographic eye lothar baumgarten b germany 1944 living and working in berlin new york presents a personal selection of photographs sculpture drawings and film from the late 1960s to the present day the book follows the creative trajectory of an artist who does not comply with the aesthetic vision of art but who continually questions the logic structuring western thought and systems of representation featuring essays on baumgarten s work by hal foster michael jakob craig owens anne rorimer and friedrich wolfram heubach each text has been chosen by the artist himself along with special graphic illustrations and images there is a deliberate ambiguity in the title the new european landscape applies both to the new designed landscapes which are the main theme of the book and to the landscape context with which i am principally concerned in the introductory chapters
