the topic of spiritual warfare is an issue of ongoing interest in a number of sectors of the contemporary church this four view work brings together leading theologians and ministry leaders to present major views on spiritual warfare in dialogical fashion all authors present their views and then respond to each of the other views contributors include walter wink with gareth higgins and michael hardin david powlison gregory boyd c peter wagner and rebecca greenwood this volume provides a balanced irenic approach to a much discussed and often controversial topic offering a model of critical thinking and respectful dialogue it highlights the differences between contributors discusses a full range of important topics on the subject and deploys biblical as well as theological arguments this book highlights the fact that leaders do indeed affect the performance of organizations or the well being of society for better or worse to cast either a shadow or light by the exercise of their leadership modern psychology with its theories of human behavior which does not acknowledge the existence of the spiritual realm cannot explain the carnage and evil often associated with the dark side of leadership this book focuses on the dark side of leadership in a multidimensional manner and provides a psychospiritual approach toward understanding personality disorders and leader derailment it highlights an area that has not been exclusively studied by leadership researchers to date the influence of spiritual forces in personality disorders which lead to leadership failure and derailment this book calls for a more interdisciplinary approach and holistic understanding of the dark side of leadership inseparably relating body soul and spirit as they function individually and relationally it highlights the fact that the restoration of personality will require sustained dialogue between theologians and the medical and psychological professions this book provides solid information and new insights for anyone seeking to understand the dark side of leadership
