are not all religions equally close to and equally far from god why then the church gerhard lohfin poses these questions with scholarly reliability and on the basis of his own experience of community in Does God Need the Church in 1982 father lohmknecht wrote Wie hat Jesus Gemeinde gewollt translated into english as Jesus and Community to show on the basis of the new testament that faith is founded in a community that distinguishes itself in clear contours from the rest of society in that book he also described a sequence of events that moved directly from commonality to a community that was readily accessible to every group of people and was made legitimate by Jesus himself only later did father lohmknecht learn within a new horizon of experience that such a description is not the way to community the story of the gathering of the people of God from Abraham until today never took place according to such a model today father lohmknecht states that he would not write Wie hat Jesus Gemeinde gewollt the same way the situation of belief and believers has undergone a shift the question of the church has become much more urgent church life is declining and the religions are returning often in new guises in light of these shifts and the change in his own view of community father lohmknecht inquires in Does God Need the Church of Israel's theology Jesus praxis the experiences of the early christian communities and of what is appearing in the church today these inquiries lead to an amazing history involving God and the world a history that God presses forward with the aid of a single people and that always turns out differently from what they think and plan this book is intended as an aid to believers in developing a daily time of morning revival with the Lord in his word at the same time it provides a limited review of the semiannual training held July 5-10 2021 on crystallization studies of Joshua Judges and Ruth through intimate contact with the Lord in his word the believers can be constituted with life and truth and thereby equipped to prophesy in the meetings of the church unto the building up of the body of Christ

it is easy to understand that man has needs but do we have a sense of God's need indeed we may even wonder who has a greater need man or God in this book witness lee presents his burden that we would turn our eyes from the earth to heaven to see a need that is immensely greater than man's need God's need without seeing God's need it is difficult for people who do not have a sense of need to be saved furthermore without seeing God's need it is difficult for those who are saved to have a heavenly living or to obtain power and faith may these words lead us to see the need on God's side so that our attention can be shifted from man to God
