the study of the syriac magical traditions has largely been marginalised within syriac studies with the earliest treatments displaying a disparaging attitude towards both the culture and its magical practices despite significant progress in more recent scholarship in respect of the culture its magical practices and their associated literatures remain on the margins of the scholarly imagination this volume aims to open a discussion on the history of the field to evaluate how things have progressed and to suggest a fruitful way forward in doing so this volume demonstrates the incredible riches contained within the syriac magical traditions and the necessity of their study this collection explores the importance of magic within early christianity this volume contains a series of provocative essays that explore expressions of magic and ritual power in the ancient world the essays are authored by leading scholars in the fields of egyptology ancient near eastern studies the hebrew bible judaica classical greek and roman studies early christianity and patristics and coptology throughout the book the essays examine the terms employed in descriptions of ancient magic from this examination comes a clarification of magic as a polemical term of exclusion but also an understanding of the classical egyptian and early greek conceptions of magic as a more neutral category of inclusion this book should prove to be foundational for future scholarly studies of ancient magic and ritual power this publication has also been published in paperback please click here for details
