a sweeping history of muslim identity from its origins in late antiquity to the present how did muslims across time and place define the line between themselves and their neighbors yousha patel explores why the prophet muhammad first advised his followers to emulate christians and jews but then allegedly reversed course urging them to be different he details how subsequent generations of muslim scholars canonized the prophet s admonition into an influential doctrine against imitation that enjoined ordinary believers to embody and display their religious difference in public life tracing this islamic discourse from its origins in arabia to mamluk and ottoman damascus colonial egypt and beyond this sweeping intellectual and social history offers a panoramic view of muslim identity revealing unexpected intersections between religion and other markers of difference across ethnicity gender and status patel illustrates that contemporary debates in the west over visible expressions of islam from headscarves and beards to minarets and mosques are just the latest iterations in a long history of how small differences have defined muslim interreligious encounters islam is a very mysterious and complex faith one of intellectual depth in prayer and practice it is unfortunate that the teachings of islam have been marred by centuries of intellectual malaise political misdirection extremism and disunity leaving many spiritual wanderers both muslim and non muslim to ponder a plethora of unaddressed questions about these sacred teachings in his newest book the muslim book of why what everyone should know about islam author scholar and leading jihad theorist warithudeen umar highlights the concept of ijtiḥad in an attempt to help answer many of today's most pressing questions about islam ijtiḥad is described as a creative and disciplined intellectual effort to derive legal rulings from islamic sources while taking into consideration the variables brought on by the fluctuating circumstances of the muslim world though the world has changed and expanded humanity's need for these teachings viewed through the clarifying concept of ijtiḥad has not to right these wrongs of gross misguidance within muslim society we must deconstruct history in order to discern what went wrong after the revelation of the quran was shared with the world the muslim book of why seeks to do so refocusing muslim thought on a life of faith family development and worship once in a while a book comes along that can reshape the thinking of the world one person at a time reading the muslim mind is just such a book dr hassan hathout starts out from a simple observation a lifetime of biculturalism leads him to note that islam in the west is widely known for what it is not this encyclopedic personality sets out to guide the reader on a comprehensive tour through islam for this voyage he supplies a keen and lucid anatomy of islamic life but more he provides with incisive clarity the inner guidebook he uncovers the tracing of the mind at work behind the practice the spirit behind the letter the rationale and the ultimate reason god two former sunni muslims now christian theology professors explain the beliefs customs ethics and practices of islam
