the day jason lawson s stress reached a tipping point he found himself shaking so badly he couldn t even pour orange juice into a blender for his family s breakfast he felt like his world was falling around him and he was afraid of losing his family his job and his mind but that was the day jason met the potter not the cartoon god on nursery walls or the religious god preached about in many churches that day jason began a journey with the potter to learn who he really is and why he created man and this journey is compiled in his new devotional the potter s hands a 366 day journey to knowing god the potter s hands tackles questions such as if the potter is so good then why did he create me to hurt and struggle why am i so cracked and flawed why does he fill me with so much pain and many more the answer jason found was simple he is the potter and we are the clay he formed us for his glory not our comfort he decides our size and shape he chooses what to pour into us and he is the one who determines where he places us our role in this is to trust him as the potter the savior the counselor the servant the commander the spirit the creator the father the rabbi the redeemer the healer and the shepherd the heartbeat of the potter s hands is to remind readers that the clay can do nothing apart from the potter s hands but in the potter s hands he can create a masterpiece for his glory what more could we ask for come along for one year and walk with him let the potter reveal to you who he really is at a time when each society had its own medium of propagation of its researches in the form of transactions proceedings journals etc a need was strongly felt for bringing out a journal devoted exclusively to the study and advancement of indian culture in all its aspects this encouraged jas burgess to launch the indian antiquary in 1872 the scope was in his own words as wide as possible incorporating manners and customs arts mythology feasts festivals and rites antiquities and the history of india another laudable aim was to present the readers abstracts of the most recent researches of scholars in india and the west indian antiquary also dealt with local legends folklore proverbs etc in short indian antiquary was entirely devoted to the study of man the indian in all spheres introduction to facsimile volumes published 1985 our divine parent traces the metaphorical theme of god s burgeoning family that spans the entire bible the family of god is a place of being belonging and becoming and relationship with the triune god as divine parent is characteristic of value and dignity provision and protection transformation and maturation purpose and calling not merely a series of events relegated to the past the family of god is an ongoing present phenomenon a salvation relationship into which god invites all peoples to be adopted redeemed children of god in this powerful book walter brueggemann moves the discussion of old testament theology beyond the dominant models of previous generations brueggemann focuses on the metaphor and imagery of the courtroom trial in order to regard the theological substance of the old testament as a series of claims asserted for yahweh the god of israel this provides a context that attends to pluralism in every dimension of the interpretive process and suggests links to the plurality of voices of our time
