from its beginnings in seattle nearly fifty years ago el centro de la raza has been translated as the center for people of all races in seattle s el centro de la raza dr king s living laboratory bruce e johansen with valuable aid from estela ortega executive director and miguel maestras housing and development director at el centro explores how the center has become part of a nationally significant work in progress on human rights and relations based on dr martin luther king jr s concept of a beloved community that crosses all ethnic racial and other social boundaries johansen s examination of the history of the center highlights its mission to consciously provide intercultural communication and cooperation as an interracial bridge uniting people on both a small and a large scale from neighborhood communities to international relations scholars of latin american studies race studies international relations sociology and communication will find this book especially useful in this influential 1925 essay presented here in spanish and english josé vasconcelos predicted the coming of a new age the aesthetic era in which joy love fantasy and creativity would prevail over the rationalism he saw as dominating the present age in this new age marriages would no longer be dictated by necessity or convenience but by love and beauty ethnic obstacles already in the process of being broken down especially in latin america would disappear altogether giving birth to a fully mixed race a cosmic race in which all the better qualities of each race would persist by the natural selection of love bachata a guitar based romantic music that debuted in santo domingo s urban shantytowns in the 1960s is today one of the hottest latin genres still fans and musicians have not forgotten the social stigma the genre carried for decades this book interweaves bachata s history and development with the socio political context of dominican identity the author argues that its early disfavor resulted from the political climate of its origins and ties between class and race and proposes that its ultimate acceptance as a symbol of dominican identity arose from its innovations the growth of the lower class and a devoted following among dominican migrants la bachata una musica de guitarra que se estreno en los barrios populares de santo domingo en los anos 60 hoy es uno de los generos latinos mas populares no obstante sus aficionados y sus exponentes recuerdan el estigma social asociado que conllevó por décadas este libro entrelaza la historia y el desarrollo de la bachata con el contexto socio político de la identidad dominicana la autora plantea que su desaprobación temprana resultó del clima político en que nació y los vínculos entre raza y clase social propone que su aceptación final como símbolo de identidad dominicana surge de sus innovaciones el crecimiento de la clase baja y sus seguidores leales entre los migrantes dominicanos tres momentos marcan la biografía de este vertiginoso ensamblaje el primero es el de la trata llevada a cabo durante la trata atlántica entre los siglos xv y xix cuando hombres y mujeres originarios de África son transformados en hombres objetos hombres mercancías y hombres monedas de cambio prisioneros en el calabozo de las apariencias a partir de ese instante pasan a pertenecer a otros víctimas de un trato hostil pierden su humanidad continúan siendo sujetos activos pese a que su vida y su trabajo pertenecen a aquellos quienes están condenados a vivir sin poder entablar relaciones humanas el segundo momento corresponde al nacimiento de la escritura y comienza hacia finales del siglo xviii cuando a través de sus propias huellas los negros estos seres cooptados articulan un lenguaje propio y son capaces de reivindicarse como sujetos plenos en el mundo viviente marcado por innumerables revueltas de esclavos y la independencia de Haití en 1804 los combates por la abolición de la trata las descolonizaciones africanas y las luchas por derechos civiles en los Estados Unidos este período se completa con el desmantelamiento del apartheid durante los años finales del siglo xx el tercer momento a comienzos del siglo xxi es el de la expansión planetaria de los mercados la privatización del mundo bajo la égida del neoliberalismo y la imbricación creciente entre la economía financiera el complejo post imperial y las tecnologías electrónicas y digitales por primera vez en la historia de la humanidad la palabra negro no remite solamente a la condición que se le impone a las personas de origen africano durante el primer capitalismo depredaciones de desposesión de todo poder de autodeterminación y sobre todo del futuro y del tiempo esas dos matrices de lo posible es esta nueva característica institucionalización en tanto que nueva norma de existencia y su propagación al resto del planeta lo que llamamos el devenir negro del mundo this work attempts to cast new light on the generation del treinta a group of creole intellectuals who situated themselves as the voice of a new cultural nationalism in Puerto Rico through a feminist lens it focuses on the interlocking themes of nationalism gender class and race

South American camelids llamas alpacas vicuñas and guanacos are receiving increased interest not only in South America but also on a worldwide scale they possess some unique features such as their fine fibre and healthy meat and their high adaptivity to many climatic regions across the world apart from the important productive aspects their physical attractiveness and friendly temperament also makes them popular as pet animals there are still many gaps in the
