marketing is a very diverse discipline dealing with everything from the costs of globalization to the benefits of money back guarantees however there is one thing that all marketing academics share they are writers they publish or perish their careers are advanced and their reputations are enhanced by the written word despite its importance writing is rarely discussed much less written about by marketing scholars it is one of the least understood yet most significant academic competencies it is a competency in need of careful study writing marketing is the first such study it offers a detailed reading of five renowned marketing writers ranging from ted levitt to morris holbrook and draws lessons that can be adopted with profit by everyone else although it is not a how to book there are no lengthy lists of dos and don ts writing marketing reveals that the rules of good writing are good for nothing written by stephen brown whose own writing skills are much commented upon writing marketing is insightful illuminating and iconoclastic it is a must read for every marketing academic irrespective of their methodological inclinations or philosophical preferences it has been said that every generation of historians seeks to rewrite what a previous generation had established as the standard interpretations of the motives and circumstances shaping the fabric of historical events it is not that the facts of history have changed no one will dispute that the battle of waterloo occurred on june 11 1815 or that the allied invasion of europe began on june 6 1944 what each new age of historians are attempting to do is to reinterpret the motives of men and the force of circumstance impacting the direction of past events based on the factual social intellectual and cultural milieu of their own generation by examining the facts of history from a new perspective today s historians hope to reveal some new truth that will not only illuminate the course of history but also validate contemporary values and societal ideals although it is true that tackling the task of developing a new text on logistics and distribution channel management focuses less on schools of philosophical and social analysis and more on the calculus of managing sales campaigns inventory replenishment and income statements the goal of the management scientist like the historian is to merge the facts and figures of the discipline with today's organizational cultural and economic realities hopefully the result will be a new synthesis where a whole new perspective will break forth exposing new directions and opportunities
