this is the first in depth study of the twelve modiano texts specifically concerned with life writing in autobiographical and biographical cum historiographical projects the texts covered range from la place de la toile 1968 through to la petite bijou 2001 close textual analysis is combined with a theoretical approach based on current thinking in autobiography biography and reader response modiano's use of autofiction and biofiction is analysed in the light of his continuing obsession with both personal trauma and history as well as his problematic relationship with his paternally inherited jewish links his view of identity of self and other is thus discussed in relation to a particular literary and socio historical context french postmodern post world war ii and post holocaust 2014 winner of the nobel prize in literature patrick modiano opens dora bruder by telling how in 1988 he stumbled across an ad in the personal columns of the new year's eve 1941 edition of paris soir placed by the parents of a 15 year old jewish girl dora bruder who had run away from her catholic boarding school the ad sets modiano off on a quest to find out everything he can about dora and why at the height of german reprisals she ran away on a bitterly cold day from the people hiding her he finds only one other official mention of her name on a list of jews deported from paris to auschwitz in september 1942 with no knowledge of dora bruder aside from these two records modiano continues to dig for fragments from dora's past what little he discovers in official records and through remaining family members becomes a meditation on the immense losses of the period lost people lost stories and lost history modiano delivers a moving account of the ten year investigation that took him back to the sights and sounds of paris under the nazi occupation and the paranoia of the pétain regime as he tries to find connections to dora in his efforts to exhume her from the past modiano realizes that he must come to terms with the specters of his own troubled adolescence the result a montage of creative and historical material is modiano s personal rumination on loss both memoir and memorial missing a young girl dora bruder 15 height 1 55m oval shaped face grey brown eyes grey sports jacket maroon pullover navy blue skirt and hat brown gym shoes all information to m and mme bruder 41 boulevard ornano paris the author chanced upon this notice in a december 1941 issue of paris soir the girl has vanished from the convent school which had taken her in during the occupation she had apparently run away on a bitterly cold night at a time of especially violent german reprisals moved by her fate the author sets out to find all he can about her eventually he discovers her name in a list of jews deported to auschwitz in september 1942 and what further fragments he is able to uncover about the bruder family become a meditation on the immense losses of the period people lost stories lost human history lost modiano delivers a moving survey of a decade long investigation that revived for him the sights sounds and sorrowful rhythms of occupied paris and in seeking to exhume dora bruder s fate he in turn faces and must come to terms with his own family history what should we learn from dora bruder the novelistic investigation by patrick modiano find everything you need to know about this work in a complete and detailed analysis you will find in particular in this card a complete summary a presentation of the main characters such as dora bruder ernest and cécile bruder albert and patrick modiano an analysis of the specificities of the work an autofiction the investigation the role of the city and the duty to remember a reference analysis to quickly understand the meaning of the work this book is the first comparative study of novels by patrick modiano w g sebal and antonio muñoz molina drawing on many literary figures movements and traditions from the spanish golden age to german romanticism to french philosophy via jewish modernist literature ian ellison offers a fresh perspective on european fiction published around the turn of the millennium reflecting on what makes european fiction european this book examines how certain novels understand themselves to be culturally and historically late expressing a melancholy awareness of how the past and present are irreconcilable within this framework however it considers how backwards facing tradition oriented self consciousness burdened by a sense of exhaustion in european culture and the violence of its past may yet suggest the potential for re enchantment in the face of obsolescence
