this book describes the global legal framework for safeguarding the intangible cultural heritage as defined by the unesco convention in 2003 and analyses its use in selected countries in the americas asia africa and europe each of the contributions has been prepared by high profile experts and strategically addresses countries that are representative for their corresponding area our understanding of the term cultural heritage has changed considerably over the past few decades and it is becoming increasingly clear that the concept also includes traditions and living expressions that we inherit from our ancestors and pass on to our descendants unesco has recognised and responded to this change of perspective creating through the 2003 convention an international instrument for safeguarding the intangible cultural heritage a notion including oral traditions performing arts social practices rituals festive events knowledge and practices concerning nature and the universe as well as the knowledge and skills needed to produce traditional crafts new values practices and heritages were recognized from the ancient african rituals to the mexican mariachi musical expression to the brazilian samba and the mediterranean diet all of which convey strong social and cultural meaning for their community s identity intangible cultural heritage is a growing relatively recent field of study and also an emblem of the dialogue between distant populations with different cultures which is the reason why a comparative approach is the most appropriate basis for conducting an analysis of how the contracting states to the convention live up to their commitments through national safeguarding measures and enhancement policies or through international cooperation projects focusing on brazil this book approaches the term heritage from not only a historical and architectural point of view but also considers its artistic archaeological natural ethnological and industrial aspects the book is divided into four thematic sections 1 traditions and intangible heritage 2 archaeological heritage 3 natural heritage and landscapes and 4 heritage of industrial and built environments and presents chapters on a diverse range of topics from samba and cultural identities in rio de janeiro to the history of brazilian archaeology the value of scenic landscapes in brazil and the cultural landscape of brazil as an outcome of the first heritage international symposium this unique book explores a variety of heritage dialogues pursuing global and specific approaches and combining different views perceptions and senses this multidisciplinary collection is unique both in its conceptual and empirical breadth this book addresses questions about theories of heritage its methodologies of research and where its boundaries lie with tourism urban development post disaster recovery collective identities memory or conflict this book is a collection of heritage studies from a critical perspective as a product of the 2018 achs association of critical heritage studies conference in hangzhou the largest conference of its kind in asia the contributors cover a wide spectrum of issues in heritage studies such as heritage management accessibility to heritage heritage conservation and heritage policy and heritage representation it also examines the various contexts within which heritage emerges and how heritage is constructed within that context analyses are based on not only representations of heritage but also on the performativity explorations touch upon community involvement landscape history children's literature endangered food architecture advertisement allotment garden and gender and visual art as heritage has always been a locus of contested verities the book offers a variegated approach to heritage studies it provides students and scholars new perspectives on heritage study
