this bibliography lists english language translations of twentieth century italian literature published chiefly in book form between 1929 and 1997 encompassing fiction poetry plays screenplays librettos journals and diaries and

correspondence past traces the roots of the twentieth century literature and cinema of crime to two much earlier diverging interpretations of the criminal the bodiless figure of cesare beccaria s enlightenment era on crimes and punishments and the biological offender of cesare lombroso s positivist criminal man elio petri 1929 1982 was one of the most commercially successful and critically revered italian directors ever a cultured intellectual and a politically committed filmmaker petri made award winning movies that touched controversial social religious and political themes such as the mafia in we still kill the old way 1967 police brutality in investigation of a citizen above suspicion 1970 and workers struggles in lulu the tool 1971 his work also explored genre in a thought provoking and refreshing manner with a taste for irony and the grotesque among his best works are the science fiction satire the 10th victim 1965 the ghost story a quiet place in the country 1968 and the grotesque giallo todo modo 1976 this book examines elio petri s life and career and places his work within the social and political context of postwar italian culture politics and cinema it includes a detailed production history and critical analysis of each of his films plenty of never before seen bits of information recovered from the italian ministerial archives and an in depth discussion of the director s unfiled projects since the release in 1929 of a popular book series with bright yellow covers the italian word giallo yellow has come to define a whole spectrum of mystery and detective fiction and films although most english speakers associate the term giallo with the violent and erotic thrillers popular in the 1960s and 1970s from directors like mario bava dario argento lucio fulci and others the term encompasses a wide range of italian media such as mysteries thrillers and detective stories even comedies and political pamphlets as films like blood and black lace 1964 and deep red 1975 have received international acclaim giallo is a fluid and dynamic genre that has evolved throughout the decades this book examines the many facets of the giallo genre narrative style themes and influences it explores italian films made for tv films and miniseries from the dawn of sound cinema to the present discussing their impact on society culture and mores postmodern ethics offers a new perspective on debates surrounding the role of the intellectual in italian society and provides an original reading of two important italian contemporary writers leonardo sciascia and antonio tabucchi it examines the ways in which the two writers use literature to engage with their socio political environment in a climate informed by the doubts and scepticism of postmodernism after traditional forms of impegno had been abandoned postmodern ethics explores ways in which tabucchi and sciascia further their engagement through embracing the very factors which problematized traditional committed writing such as the absence of fixed truths the inability of language to fully communicate ideas and intertextuality postmodern ethics provides an innovative new reading of tabucchi s works it challenges the standard view in critical literature that his writing may be divided into engaged texts which dialogue with society and postmodern texts which focus on literary interiority suggesting instead that socio political engagement underpins all of his works it also offers a new lens on sciascia s writing unpacking why sciascia unlike his contemporaries is able to maintain a belief in literature as a means of dialoguing with society postmodern ethics explores the ways in which tabucchi and sciascia approach issues of terrorism justice the anti mafia movement immigration and the value of reading in connected yet distinct ways suggesting that a close genealogy may be drawn between these two key intellectual figures tani s dissertation is the most stunningly original and intelligent i have encountered in 25years of teaching wrote the late novelist john gardner tani s argument says that the mysterious story as written by hammett and others and touted by the french existentialists led to a new kind of novel and the old style mystery as written by for example agatha christie seemed a literary dead end a conservative if not reactionary game in recent years tani shows the seeming dead end has led to the most important literary movement now visible the ironic intellectual fiction of people ranging from borges and barth to calvino and he proves that the spearhead of this movement is italian fiction as influenced by american mystery fiction at first glance the argument seems outrageous the brilliance of tani s thesis besides the original outrageous idea is that he solidly and systematically makes his case offers reviews of more than three thousand albums of film television and stage music
