the selections from 132 authors in this anthology represent gender social class and racial and national origin as inclusively as possible providing both greater context for canonical works and a sense of the era's richness and diversity in terms of genre. Poetry, non-fiction, prose, philosophy, educational writing, and prose fiction are included. Geographically, America, Canada, Australia, India, and Africa are represented along with Britain, emphasizing Romantic literature as a world literature. Biographical headnotes, explanatory footnotes, and an extensive bibliography clarify and illuminate the texts for readers.

Intended for courses with a major focus on poetry during the Romantic period, this volume includes all the poetry selections from Volume 4 of the Broadview Anthology of British Literature along with a number of works newly edited for this volume. The Broadview Anthology of Romantic Poetry maintains the Broadview Anthology of British Literature's characteristic balance of canonical favorites and lesser-known gems, featuring a breadth of poetry from William Blake to Phillis Wheatley, from Ebenezer Elliott to Felicia Hemans, to give a sense of the full sweep of the Romantic period. The anthology incorporates important early figures from William Collins to Phillis Wheatley, as well as works by Victorians such as Elizabeth Barrett Browning and Alfred Lord Tennyson, for whom Romanticism was a formative force. Contexts sections provide valuable background on cultural matters such as the natural and the sublime and the abolition of slavery, while the companion website offers a wealth of additional resources and primary works. Longer works newly prepared for the bound book include Byron's Manfred and Keats's Hyperion, and substantial selections from Wordsworth's Fourteen. Book prelude authors newly added for this volume include Hannah Cowley, Hannah More, Ann Yearsley, Robert Southey, and Thomas Moore.

The publication of the Broadview Anthology of Seventeenth-Century Verse and Prose is a literary event. This comprehensive volume is the first anthology of the period to reflect the breadth of seventeenth-century studies in recent decades. Over one hundred writers are included, from John Chamberlain at the beginning of the century to Elisabeth Singer Rowe at its end. There are generous selections from the work of all major writers and a representation of the work of virtually every writer of significance the work of women writers figures prominently with extensive selections not only from canonical writers such as behn and bradstreet but also from other writers such as katherine philips and margaret cavendish who have been receiving considerable scholarly attention in recent years the anthology is broadly inclusive with writing from america as well as from the british isles memoirs letters political texts travel writing prophetic literature street ballads and pamphlet literature are all here as is a full representation of the literary poetry and prose of the period including the poetry of jonson the prose of bacon the metaphysical poetry of donne herbert marvell and others the lyric verse of herrick and substantial selections from the poetry and prose of milton and dryden while samson agonistes is included in its entirety milton's epic poems have been excluded in order to allow space for other works not so readily accessible elsewhere the editors have included complete works wherever possible a headnote by the editors introduces each author and each selection has been newly annotated

This selection of thirty-eight stories from the nineteenth to the twenty-first centuries illustrates diverse narrative styles from the austere to the avant-garde as well as a broad spectrum of human experiences. The collection comprises both recognized classics of the genre and some very interesting, less often anthologized works. Stories are organized chronologically, lightly annotated, and prefaced by engaging short introductions. Also included is a glossary of basic critical terms. The second edition has been updated to include more recent stories, a greater selection of international authors and works in translation, and an illustrated story, Shaun Tan's Grandpa's Story. Several luminaries of the genre, including Alice Munro, have multiple stories included in the collection.
