road life introduces you to 35 inspirational people from across the globe who've made their vans campers and buses part of their lifestyle and provides you with the tools to do the same. What's the appeal of a life on the road with everything you need contained on four wheels? Tried it yourself and felt inadequate and underprepared or feel daunted by converting a vehicle yourself? The campers in this book can show you how to roll up in style from expert craftsmen who've converted entire buses from scratch to low-key explorers who've perfected the art of budget travel solo travellers living and working on the road to families who sold up everything for a life of touring. For these aficionados, life on the road is pure pleasure, a way to connect with nature, an antidote to modern life, and unlike most of us, they know how to do it properly, supported by Instagram-worthy photography. Sebastian Antonio Santabarbara interviews each contributor to bring out their unique and inspirational approach to life and travel, their most memorable experiences and challenges, and the tips and gadgets they couldn't live without. The book also provides advice to achieve the road life yourself and suggests worldwide destinations that provide a similar setting, giving you the inspiration and tools to plan your next trip with enviable campervan setups, stories that will give you wanderlust, stunning locations, and top advice from the experts. Road life is the perfect companion and guide for any wannabe van owner.

The gripping conclusion of a modern-day epic suspense trilogy about faith, hope, and providence in times of cultural upheaval and national insecurity. In the gripping conclusion of the third Peril trilogy, the third day follows the lives of a disillusioned journalist, a young political blogger, a reluctant lawyer, his heartbroken sister, and her son, and the sojourners at Hope Springs. Be sure to watch for Zeke, the mysterious old man with a long white beard who wears Hawaiian shirts; he drives a Rambler station wagon with a seemingly endless tank of gas as he weaves in and out of the lives of each character. The geopolitical landscape is changing rapidly. Alistair Dormin, chairman of the World Reserve Bank, has secured his position as the global leader, and he is now imposing even stricter policies on economic activities, free speech, and religion all over the world. People must now make life-or-death decisions, but what will you do in the end?
