the book of revelation is a book of things previously hidden things previously hidden not by man but by god and as such the human mind cannot come close to comprehending all that god is able to reveal or the means by which god chooses to reveal his nature character and love in short you can not put god in a box the reader is urged to maintain an open mind in dealing with each portion of the book as seen in relation to its context and to other parts of scripture this book is for the study and enjoyment of serious bible students only it is an advanced and very unorthodox study into the mysteries of god that are hidden to all except those god chooses to enlighten with his deep things i do not recommend anyone who is not hungry and thirsty for truth to either buy or share this book with novices many of the teachings written herein will be labeled heresies but i challenge all to scripturally disprove them for further advanced studies go to paulbdyal.blogspot.com where i now have over 1 700 blogs on subjects from creation to revelation lies exposed raw truth revealed is an eye opening book that takes a strong stand against compromise and deception in the body of christ this book is sure to challenge every believer to stand for the truth of god s word and boldly expose every lie of the enemy this book is designed to catch the attention of people of all ages as raw truth is revealed in an undeniable way unveiling revelation volume 1 is a critical examination of the first chapter of the book of revelation this book is presented in a truthful hopeful perspective a perspective that is removed from presumption and pretext it is written in a verse verse study guide format with tremendous detail if you have any desire to know the truth about the book of revelation then this book is for you unveiling revelation volume 1 communicates the true message that god the father originally intended for this book the revelation of jesus christ is to be known by everyone unveiling revelation volume 1 chapter 1 promises to deliver a strong biblical foundation easy to understand hermeneutics the most balanced approach to the text a thorough critical examination of the word exposure of pitfalls in understanding historical context spiritual context gramatical context personal application overflowing with revelation truth and understanding received of old by st john the divine on the isle of patmos the bible s book of revelation has mystified and confounded many generations of readers now you too can read and understand what the book of revelation really means understand it through its new translation from god as it was received by the author s mind while in communion with god s mind lawrence hall dawson has entered the deep quagmire of humankind s failed attempts to interpret for humankind the book of revelation and has brought to us all the light of understanding with deep love for mankind jesus and other high celestial spirits communicate revelations that bring the realization to mankind of our true human destiny it is only an error of unbelief that would cause us to reject the truth that spirits and mortal do communicate book of truths is a collection of vitally important messages from the spirit world received by james e padgett between 1914 and 1920 among many truths revealed in this book is the greatest truth of all â the transformation of the human soul through the inflowing of god s great gift of divine love the gentle teaching of jesus and other spirits is that we are the beloved children of god and that the one desire closest to his heart of love is that we become his children in truth this book shows how a new birth of our soul is made possible through love this is a condensed version of book of truths providing in a small edition a selection of some of the more important messages received by james padgett with the deepest and most abiding gratitude i acknowledge those whose steadfast devotion to the eternal word of god has shaped not only the course of my understanding but the very heartbeat of this work to charles spurgeon dr john macarthur r c sproul paul washer and voddie baucham i have sat at their feet learning from their tireless preaching unwavering teaching and unswerving fidelity to the scriptures it is upon the solid foundation of their labors that this vision has been wrought and through their example the light of truth shines with clarity precision and an authority that calls the soul to both awe and reverent obedience part two of the unveiling carries the reader beyond the threshold of mere understanding and into the very heart of divine revelation here the journey deepens the veil is lifted further and the radiant glory unyielding authority and eternal purpose of christ are laid bare with unwavering precision this is no recounting of events it is an encounter with the living word whose every word gesture and miracle reveals the vastness of his sovereignty in these pages the faithful are called to examine themselves to surrender the comforts of tradition the allure of familiarity and the fragile securities of human understanding the truths unveiled are piercing challenging and inescapable leaving no room for neutrality before the majesty of the son of god john s account illuminates the mysteries of christ s mission the depths of his love and the inexhaustible power that flows from his divine nature this part is for the seeker of revelation the pilgrim of truth and the soul longing to see jesus as he truly is radiant sovereign and eternal here knowledge gives way to awe curiosity to reverence and understanding to transformation prepare to be held confronted and drawn irrevocably into the presence of the living christ
